Used items:

56 612 000	Glass jar with cork lid, 9.5 cm ø	1 piece
33 942 04	Foam rubber sheet, brown	30 × 9 cm
89 175 00	Wiggle eyes to glue on, 20 mm ø	2 pieces
76 514 49	Pompoms, mix	1 piece
55 213 18	Satin ribbon, red	31 cm
52 138 000	Chenille wire mix, brown shades	2 pieces
42 000 504	Jute cord, 1.5 mm ø, sand	62 cm

Additionally you need:

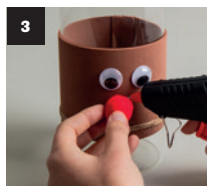

89 529 00	Set of gimlets
30 069 000	Special double-sided adhesive tape

Scissors, hot-melt adhesive

Instructions:

- 1 Cut a 30 × 9 cm piece and a 2 × 9 cm piece from the foam rubber sheet. Depending on the circumference of your glass jar, you may need to extend or shorten the length of the cutting.
- 2 To tie in the large cutting (30 × 9 cm), take the small cutting (2 × 9 cm) and place it underneath the large one, then glue the two ends of the large cutting to the small one.
- 3 Glue the two wiggle eyes and the red pom-pom onto the foam rubber sleeve.
- 4 Wind the jute cord twice around the bottom edge of the sleeve and glue it to the rear side.
- 5 Shape the chenille wire into a deer antler using the template provided.
- 6 Use the gimlet to make one or two holes (depending on the antler being made) in the lid.

Instructions:

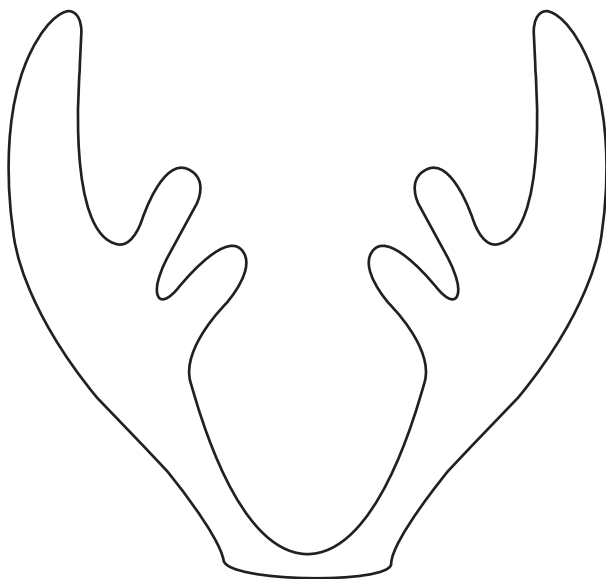

7 Insert the chenille deer antler into the drilled hole(s) and affix it to the other side of the cork lid by means of the hot-melt adhesive.

8 Stick the satin ribbon to the top edge of the glass jar using the double-sided adhesive tape.

Then fill the glass jar with sweets and close with cork lid.
